

Peacebuilding skills are a vital professional need for the twenty-first century.

What is peacebuilding?
How does peace studies connect with your major?
How can you develop peacebuilding skills?

NEW: CERTIFICATE IN GLOBAL PEACEBUILDING

Fall Global Peacebuilding Courses Fall 2021

POLS 2500, Intro to International Studies:

Colin Flint, Logan, T/TH 12:00-1:15pm, Hybrid F2F

HIST 1510, The Modern World:

Clayton Brown, Online

POLS 3400, US Foreign Policy:

Austin Knuppe, Logan, T/Th 4:30-5:45pm, F2F

HIST 4540, Gender, Violence, Non-Violence:

Susan Grayzel, Logan, T/Th 12:00-1:15pm, Blended F2F

LING 2100, Languages in Society:

Karin Dejonge-Kannan, Logan
Section 1: W 12:30-1:45pm, Blended Web
Broadcast Section 2: W 3:00-4:15pm, Blended Web Broadcast

LING 2500, Language and Religion:

Karin Dejonge-Kannan, Logan, T/Th 10:30-11:45am, F2F

POLS 3230, Middle East Politics and Government:

Austin Knuppe, Logan, T/Th 3:00-4:15pm, F2F

Davis Anderson, Online

CHSS 4250, Advanced

Internship/Co-op

Arranged with Carson Tatton

CHSS 5250, Global Peace Capstone Course:

Colin Flint, Logan, T/Th 3:00-4:15pm, Hybrid F2F

For more information go to

<https://history.usu.edu/study/global-peace/index> or contact:

Dr. Colin Flint colin.flint@usu.edu

Dr. Tammy Proctor tammy.proctor@usu.edu

Mr. Carson Tatton carson.tatton@usu.edu

